I remember as a kid and on up into adulthood that he had to have his meat skins and red rind hoop cheese. Most of all i remember the love he showed toward everyone. He did not meet a stranger. The one memory i will never forget is when he had this little dog he called Shep. He taught this dog to watch both ways before it crossed the road. Then one afternoon we were in the living room and watched this dog do what he taught it to do. Uncle Bill will be sorely missed. Love you Uncle Bill and say hello to Aunt Betty, who you always called Betty Lou.

This was the very best FATHER in law any daughter could ask for. He and mom loved without conditions! Missing them is an under statement. I love you Dad and mom.
