“ I am so saddened by her lose she will forever be in our hearts and I know I have memories to cherish I loved her dearly . A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves, for they are still alive in our hearts, and through our memories, they live on. My condolences.

May fond memories of her bring you comfort during this hard time in your life. My heart and prayers go out to you and your family.

May you live in the legacy she leaves behind

She has now earned her wings

“ My precious momma my heart is broken. I've never felt a loss like this before and I pray that I never do again. I know that you're happy in heaven, much more so than we are here on earth. I love you beyond comprehension. Always! I hope you can hear Luke Bryan serenading you from here. I'm sure the angels sing much better than he ever could anyway. One more thing..."are you over it yet? " my forever angel, I'll always miss you and selfishly wish you were here. With unending love, your daughter Shelley Martin
