“ A tribute to my best friends Dad: It is only natural to grieve and hurt regarding all the missed opportunities of visiting or even a phone call. So, for now, I choose to write in celebration of the time I've had with him for my life is much richer just by knowing him. My hat is off to the values he handed down to his son, those inherited qualities are a major reason we are and will continue to be lifelong friends. "Big Carl", you are on God's front porch now and I can only imagine the splendor you are looking at. I know I will see you again and I'll get to sit beside you in a rocking chair and make up for all the missed opportunities "On God's Front Porch". Your legacy is embedded in my memories, and I smile when I relive moments shared with you. I cherish the time I got with you, for the world is a better place because you lived. Matthew 5:4. “ Dad,
It is with a heavy heart that I am typing this. I want to thank you for raising me right, and teaching me how to hunt and fish. Thank you for taking up as much time with me as your job would allow.
Thank you for always believing in me and encouraging me in life. You always said do what makes you happy son, be a good man, treat people like you want to be treated. You said your last name is all you got son, try and protect it. Act right and it will stay clean.
Thank you for allowing me to be me in life. Although sometimes we weren't on the same page on things, I believe we were always in the same book.
I know I have told you these things to your face numerous times in my life, I just wanted to say them one more time pop. You were a great father and I appreciate you for everything you have ever done for me in my lifetime.

In your words, thank you, thank you. thank you !!!! I will take care of mom as you asked. She and I will miss you.

I love you dad
