

Mr. Claude 'Butch' Haynes

October 2, 2019

The funeral service for Mr. Claude (Butch) Haynes, 71, of Oxford will be at 3 o'clock in the afternoon on Sunday, October 6, 2019 at First Baptist Church of Oxford with Pastors Stan Albright and William "Buddy" Nelson officiating. The family will receive friends two hours prior to the funeral service beginning at 1 o'clock. Burial will be Monday, October 7, 2019 at 1:15 o'clock in the afternoon at the Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo, Alabama.

Butch Haynes passed away peacefully in the loving arms of his family into his heavenly home on Wednesday, October 2, 2019.

Butch had this amazing, outgoing personality that led to many lifetime friendships. His greatest love was spending time with family and friends. He was our Mr. Fix It, Mr. Wonderful, but called "Superman" by many friends, including his doctors. He embraced life to the fullest, rarely met a stranger, and was as loyal as they come.

Butch served in the United States Army and was a Vietnam Veteran. He retired as a supervisor in 2011 after working 40 years at Anniston Army Depot. He volunteered at the Oxford Performing Arts Center and was a volunteer with the Knox Concert Series Nutcracker Boutique. Butch was previously a member of the Calhoun County Civil Defense, Elks Lodge 189, and First Baptist Church of Oxford Nailbenders mission group. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Oxford for most of his life. He served the Lord, loved people, and in turn made an eternal impact on all who knew him.

Left to cherish his memory is his wife, Theresa Hammonds Haynes, his daughters, Beth Haynes Burleson (Bart), and Lindsey Darlene Haynes; sister, Peggy Haynes Hildreth (John), brothers, John D. Haynes (Diane) and Patrick Haynes; five nephews and eight nieces.

He is preceded in death by his parents, John Douglas and Etta Butterworth Haynes, and his sister, Patricia Darlene Haynes.

Pallbearers will be Jason Bolt, Greg Hethcox, Colby Deal, Andy Stinson, Zach Guffey, and Dr. Pat Bernardi. Honorary pallbearers will be Mr. Greg Bernardi, Mr. Buford Parker and Mr. Victor Zamora.

The family would like to extend their gratitude to the staff at Grandview Oncology Center in Birmingham, Dr. Benjamin Jones, Dr. William Thompson III, Ashley, Andrea, Lindsey, Beth, Karen, GiGi, and Brenda for their devoted love, care, and support throughout this long, difficult journey.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to First Baptist Church of Oxford or to the Sarcoma Foundation of America, P.O. Box 98160, Washington, DC 20090-8160 curesarcoma.org

“ Butch is the brother I never had. I have so many fond memories of our family get togethers growing up. Butch was the story teller. I remember so well how you couldn't tell if a story was really that good or if Butch was just really good at telling it. My dearest memory will always be how when my daddy was in the hospital for so long, every morning after working second shift, he would be at the hospital by 6:00 A.M. to go back with my mother during the first ICU visit. He was at the hospital so much that the doctor thought he was a son. I will forever be grateful to the Lord for making Butch Haynes a part of our family.

“ I remember going to oxford ball games with Butch and Theresa when Beth, Lindsey, and Alice were in the band. Sarah and I would laugh at the things Butch would say all the way to the game. He was one of the best men I have ever known! He will be missed by all!

“ Superman was always smiling even in the face of serious health issues, always a friend, always gave loving hugs and he loved his wife and girls like crazy! Butch had a knack for making everyone feel special. Theresa, I love you and I have you and the girls in my prayers.

“ I will always remember our times together with each of our daughters. What special memories of Butch and Theresa and Beth and Lindsay, attending school functions together and having our daughters' spend-the-night parties. You hold a very special place in our hearts, Butch. I know everyone who knew you, loved you, including us. We love you Theresa, Beth, and Lindsay. You are in our prayers.
