

Deborah 'Debbie' Lynne Blair Taylor

October 14, 1959 - July 9, 2021

Deborah Lynne Taylor (Blair)

Deborah Lynne Taylor, 61, passed away on Friday, July 9, 2021 at her home in Oxford, Alabama surrounded by her loving family.

Deborah (Debbie), was born on Wednesday, October 14, 1959 in Talladega, Alabama. Debbie graduated from Anniston High School Class of 1977, where she achieved first chair flute in the marching band each year and was also a member of the flag corps in her senior year. Following graduation, she wed Samuel Taylor on June 6, 1977, and became a devoted military wife, mother, and homemaker. She was a selfless caregiver to her family and friends and touched the lives of everyone who came to know her loving and caring personality. Throughout her life, Debbie volunteered as a chaperone for school field trips, cared for children in the church nursery on Sundays, and worked with children at the schools her sons attended. Of the places she lived, Debbie loved her time in Ramstein, Germany where she enjoyed visiting the Christmas markets and traveling throughout the country. Debbie was immensely proud of her family. She passed on her appreciation and love of music, cooking, and baking to her sons. Debbie was a Christian who loved the Lord and all his creations.

Mrs. Taylor is survived by her husband Samuel Taylor of Oxford and her sons Christopher Taylor of Baltimore, MD, and Joshua Taylor of Charleston, SC. She is also survived by her mother, Mrs. Suretta Blair of Anniston, AL. She is preceded in death by her father Gregory Blair of Anniston and brother Van Blair of Anniston.

Services for Mrs. Taylor will be held on Tuesday, July 13, 2021 at 1:00 PM at the Church of the Cross, 1600 Greenbriar Dear Rd, Anniston, AL 36207. Mrs. Taylor will be interred at the Alabama National Cemetery in Montevallo, AL.

Comments

“ During my formative years, Debbie was a great role model, and an inspiration. I recall sitting with her for hours on end while she practiced playing her flute. She never shunned her pesky little cousin. She always treated me with kindness and generosity. My memories of her are truly priceless.
