“ Rest in peace Nancy. I knew you when we were young and your Daddy was the pastor of our church. I would see you from time to time over the years and you always had a smile and a kind word. You will be missed.

“ My darling Aunt Nancy...
Oh how I love you!
Every one who knew you loved you. You made everybody you knew felt like they were so special. You saw the good in everyone. You brightened any room with your presence. Your beauty wasn't just on the outside but deep within you! Your smile and your touch was so comforting. I'll miss you for a while...then we will all be together again soon with no more goodbyes. Tell my mama I love her and can't wait for us all to be together again. I love you so very big much!
