“ Raymond was a one of a kind man, husband, father and friend. He had a great sense of humor and a biting response of joy for everyone. He loved his family and they adored him. I got to know him through his son Michael in his later years. He and his wife Martha Lee have become to people I love deeply. He will be missed but never forgotten. Heaven is going to rejoice when Raymond Smelley walks through those pearly gates George Martin and Nelda Cox

“ Mr Smelley was a special person and I was blessed to have known him. I worked at NHC on the weekends and he gave me a nick name Red Robin and would sing to me as I walked down the hall. Thank you for the happy memories. Praying for comfort for his family. It was a pleasure to have known him, and meet his family.
