

Abbie Stovall

July 10, 2003 - March 23, 2025

Abbie Stovall, 21 of Ohatchee/Oxford, Alabama passed away on March 23, 2025.

A visitation will be held at Miller Funeral Home on Thursday, March 27, 2025 from 10:00 am until 12:00 pm. A service will follow the visitation at 12:00 pm.

She is survived by her parents, Alan J. Stovall, and Angie Stovall; brother, Jude Graziano; niece, Josephine Graziano; grandparents, Bob and Debbie Puckett; honorable grandmother, Mary Corfman; uncles and aunts, Jack Leggett (Kim), Jackie Stovall (Shanda), Johnny Stovall, Brandi Hanson (Buck), Kathline Hagerman (Doug); and a host of cousins that she loved dearly.

She is preceded in death by her MeMaw, Peggy Stovall; and grandparents, Jack and Audrey Stovall.

Abbie had a fiery spirit, and if she loved you she loved you whole heartedly. She loved competing in sports, and was passionate coaching girls in youth basketball. She adored all of her family as shown by her unwavering loyalty. The sun set and rose around her Daddy. She had a smile that would light up a room, and a laugh that was contagious. She is greatly loved and will be missed dearly. Heaven gained a beautiful angel.

Alan, Angie, and Jude appreciate all of the unwavering support and condolences.

“ I had the unparalleled joy of spending both Abbie's twentieth and twenty-first birthdays with her. I will daily and especially every summer miss her contagious laugh, her raging affection, and her unwavering loyalty. I see her in every lake and river, every oak and willow tree, and every sunrise and sunset. My world will never be the same without Abbie Marie Stovall

Alan & Angie I'm so sorry for your loss of your precious daughter. I haven't seen you or your family in years but my late husband, Lilborn did a lot of work for you on A J's & your house on Turner Road. May God be with you & Angie & give you strength. Love you.

“ I met her at a restaurant she was working. Told her she was absolutely beautiful everytime I saw her. She had a free spirit that I clicked with. We always had a few giggles. She stood out from the rest. Rest in Jesus pretty girl!!!

Run the streets of Heaven with that free spirit. 🙌🙏
