“ I met her when I went to work at Wakefields warehouse. Her, Donna Samson and I became best friends and got together whenever we could. We use to compare notes on Hawk's escapeds and my son's Micah. She always spoke her mind and didn't care if you liked it or not. She would fight for you in a heartbeat, and give you the shirt off her back if you needed it. She was indeed an unforgettable person and she will be missed by all who loved and knew her.
