“ 4th of July 2013 him and his 2 cousins lauren and hunter and hunter's friend levi were all at Uncle Joe's house for the fireworks and they all 4 had "too" much fun and even climbed on the roof of the garage. they all laughed and talked and I don't think those three alex (May96) lauren (June 96) and hunter (july96) had ever socialized like that. He will be missed by everyone who was touched by his presence. There are many in heaven waiting to welcome him. Even though his wings were ready, our hearts were not. ”

“ You had just came back into my life. I told you I was sorry for the past and I loved you. From there I calmed you down a few times and you would call just to chat. I remember how when you were little, you would hold my pinky finger and rub my pinky nail. I became your aunt a month before I turned 10 and you were always so drawn to me. I wish I could have been there for you more. I wish a thousand things.... anything that would have you still with us today. I know you were a little messed up like me. You just never got to understand that's what made you extra special. I hope the other side is everything you didn't get in this life and more. I will be sure to hug your neck when I see you again.
