“ What a pillar of strength Allen was for me, my sister, brother and mother when my daddy was sick with cancer. He was there to help with anything we needed, and was right by daddy's side throughout his battle with pancreatic cancer. Afterwards, he came right alongside my mother as she grieved, and was by her side as she battled dementia, caring for her home and yard, and anything else she needed for many years. He was always smiling, upbeat, and was a ray of sunshine when it was most needed. I will miss you, Uncle Allen! Your loving niece, Carol Knight Probst ”
