“ My sweet friend. Beautiful and loved by all. She's running on streets of gold now! My favorite memory is of the times we shared, dragging kids to Junior Bible Quiz Competitions. She loved Jesus and wanted the whole world to know it. She also loved her step-son and her son with all her heart! She and Zack, loved calling me Ms. Mecky as Zack had called me from an early age! I'm so glad I had the wonderful opportunity to know this beautiful saint.

“ "Precious memories, how they linger, How they ever flood my soul, In the stillness of the midnight Precious sacred scenes unfold." I had the privilege of meeting this precious jewel (As we called her "Mother Teresa) while attending WAIO... Her warm hands and her sweet smelling breath as she layed hands and prayed one of the sweetest prayers over me. Her legacy of Love for people will forever live in the hearts of those she impacted. I know she is rejoicing now in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ... I will miss you dearly "Mother Teresa" - Jeremy S. Davis

“ *I will never forget; I couldn't have been more than about 14 years old and I simply *adored* Mrs. Allison (as she was called by the church youth). One day I was admiring her earrings and she blew my young mind by taking them off and offering them to me!*

That moment impacted me for the rest of my life as I learned the lesson that material things never have more value than a simple act of love and charity.

That was the way Mrs. Allison lived in my young mind and memory, and I know she will be greatly missed by her family and all who knew her. However, her impact and legacy lives on in the lives she touched.

We'll see you One Day, Mrs. Allison!
