“ I had been at the hospital with Michael for about a year, one day when we was home I was able to work for a few hours. Amy came in with her precious baby girl. I have NEVER seen a mother so swollen in PRIDE as Amy was that day, showing me her sweet baby, and telling me how good she was doing. She was literally glowing! My prayers are with you all!

Amy was the sweetest little girl. Not to say she wasn't just as sweet as an adult. When I first got to know Randy and Gail she took right up with me. Would cry to go home with. And I took her a couple of times but Randy wouldn't let her her spend the night. He wanted her home at bed time. Then I lived with them for a year a few years back in Helfin she was still the sweet young girl I loved. You will be so missed by everybody. R.I. P. Amy
