Andrea was a beloved mother, daughter, sister, and friend. She brightened the lives of all who met her with her kindness, fun spirit, and loving disposition. Andrea was a beautiful person, inside and out, with a smile that could light up the room. She radiated joy, and simply being in her presence was enough to inspire happiness in anyone around her.

She was an avid Auburn fan, a nature enthusiast, and she loved all animals. She held an undergraduate degree in Chemistry, which she received from Jacksonville State University. She worked for several years as a Marketing Director at Autumn Cove Assisted living. Andrea loved the Lord and was a member of Hillcrest Baptist church. Andrea served proudly as the former president of the Anniston Kiwanis Club and was the former Ambassador of the Year for the Chamber of Commerce.

Abraham Lincoln said, "In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years." Andrea Skinner Miller touched the lives of so many in her short 39 years in this world, and the world will forever be a better place for having had her in it.

“ Mrs. Skinner

I just heard about Andrea today. My heart is broken for you and her family. Andrea was a beautiful person with actions that matched.

*The many times that I visited June Sariano at Autumn Cove, any interactions with you and or Andrea were most pleasant. One of the lasting memories I have of Andrea was her working in the entrance garden area. I stopped to talk with her as I entered the parking lot. My thoughts were and still are that Andrea CARED about not only the residents but about the appearance of Autumn Cove. That spoke volumes to me then and will forever. I truly am sorry for the loss of such a special person..... Your Andrea.
Hugs & Prayers to you

“Mrs. Skinner, I literally just found out about Andrea and my tears are uncountable!

I am not one to keep up with everyone's Facebook and had to have it brought to my attention by someone else. Please forgive me for being so late to say something to show my condolences and to compliment you on raising one of my favorite people ever! That girl was something else! Andrea was someone you couldn't help but to love and feel better whenever she was around. I met her in 2008 and from then on I've considered her a friend and part of what I like to call the Vendor Family.

She loved her mama! There could never be a diamond brighter than her beautiful and strong mother. We often spoke of you and she could never hide how much you meant to her. I would ask how you were doing and her eyes would just light up! She was a fighter and inspiration just like you!

She was there to celebrate my 40th birthday with me and of course give me a hard time about Alabama and Auburn. Actually that would be me giving her the hard time but she was always a good sport about it.

I wish it was me instead of her being that I will soon be 43 this weekend and it just doesn't seem fair for her to be gone so young with so much more to do and those of us that felt her light be left here feeling broken with so many questions. How do we feel that empty space she left? Only god knows!

If there is anything you need please contact me and thank you for sharing the one and only Andrea Skinner Miller with me and the rest of the world!

Sincerely,
Tabitha Royal
