

Andrew Lee Walker

March 29, 2020

Andrew Lee Walker, 27, entered into eternal peace March 29, 2020. He left peacefully, in his mother's arms at RMC in Anniston, AL after a long courageous battle of multiple health complications.

Andrew is the son of Audrey James, Step-Father Ron NeSmith, and father, Chris Walker, deceased.

He leaves 2 sisters; Chasity Walker (nieces Elizabeth Howard and Addison Hoffman) and Christina Walker. 2 aunts; Stephanie James and Anita Horn. 2 Uncles; Jimmy (Janet) Walker and Danny Walker. 9 cousins and countless 2nd & 3rd cousins and several Great Aunts and Great Uncles. Step-Mother Mary Helm. Grandmother Lois walker. He is proceeded in death by his father, Chris Walker, Grandparents Billy and Jeanette James, Uncle Elbert Wright and Aunt Sheila Smith and Chosen Brother Trey Phillips.

Andrew is lovingly known by 'Andy' to his countless supply of friends. He had 3 'Chosen' Brothers, Ben Hardin, Chris Massa, and Michael and Kyle Hollingsworth and 2 special cousins, Mike Smith and Jim Wright.

'Andy' battled many medical conditions throughout his short life; from surgeries to amputation, but he refused to allow his disabilities to dictate his abilities. He was a strong, courageous man of good character with a huge heart. He'll forever be remembered for his love of making you laugh, even at his own expense. He was generous and loyal to a fault; family, friends, and anyone in need. Everyone knows his love for the 'Biohazard' symbol which he proudly displayed in and among his many other tattoos.

Andrew was young, still trying to choose his life's path; from Bounty Hunter, foundry work, to Bail Bonding and was currently with Cool Vapors on Hwy 78. Learning the trade from his dad, Chris, he'd spend hours and weekends under the hood of his truck or one of his many friends laughing and turning a wrench. Friends will always remember seeing him in his jacked up truck, Rebel and other flags flying, music blaring as he cruised through town, up Cheaha, or in "Books" parking lot where he and his friends enjoyed hanging out. We will forever miss his laughter and his warped sense of humor. We will treasure our memories and time we had with him. We will always remember him with love and carry his memory with us until we see him again. He will never know the impact he made in the lives of so many. Andrew completed our family, he was his mothers very breath, he was Chasity's heartbeat, and our lives will never be the same. We are shattered but grateful for our time with him. Chasity was his protector here on earth, now, her brother, my son, is our Guardian Angel who will always be with us, watching over us, and waiting with open arms when we are reunited, and our family circle is once again complete.

In respecting HIS final wishes, there will be a Celebration of Life Friday, April 3, 2020. (Details can be found on his Facebook page or contact sister Chasity or brother Ben Hardin for more info)

In lieu of flowers, the family asks you to consider donations in his honor to Wounded Warrior or Birmingham Children's Hospital.

While we are all devastated by this sudden, unexpected loss of our beloved Andy, we hope family and friends may find comfort in knowing he is now reunited with his father and he's no longer suffering. Andrew has finally found his eternal Peace.

“ My sweet son, I have no words to express how deeply lost and broken I am with you no longer here. You touched so many lives, helped so many friends, always with a smile. You stood up for the underdog and carried yourself with respect and morals most your age don't possess. I know your sister, friends and family miss you. For me, half of my heart went with you. That void I have will never be filled, my heart never whole again. I see your smile everywhere I go, I feel you with me when in the warmth of the sunshine and when a gentle breeze brushes against my face. I hear your words echo, hear your laughter when I'm around your friends. I think of you more than anything and anyone. I thought I'd felt loss, heartache, and pain before.... But I was wrong. There's nothing, absolutely nothing that hurts more than not being able to call or see you (of course with a dry, sarcastic sense of humor you and your dad shared) the only relief I can attempt to find is that you have your dad, pawpaw, and Uncle Albert and Trey with you. 27 years is NOT enough time with you. I know we'll be together soon but know I'll NEVER stop grieving until we're reunited again. Until I have you in my arms again, I'll carry you with me with every breath I take, every step I make, because each one brings me a little closer to being with you again. I love you my sweet son, my precious baby boy who was taken Too soon....keep watching over your sister, nieces and friends. Be with those who still mourn for you. For grief is the only thing we have left to honor and show our love for you! I'll be with you soon son. I love you

“ Andy... You were my first love, My first smile, my first for many things but you were my last for many things as well and I will forever be grateful and honored to have had the chance to have your love, support, motivation and courage as a part of my life!!! You had so many friends and had the love of a million people because you were such a rare soul; filled with humor, selflessness, beauty and love... I have many personal and many group memories with you that I, to this day, hold closest to my heart and I will forever miss you... I love you, Andy.

“ My sweet Nephew I'll never stop loving you, or forget the times we shared fishing with you, your momma Audrey @sister Chasity and your daddy Chris Walker.

As unfair as this is and how it makes absolutely no sense of why happened, I know your daddy with you.

I'll miss you , wish I could of had another chance to walk oxford lake with you, or to walk in the smoke shop see you working your magic.

You were strong, brave and will be remembered nephew. Love you always *aunt Anita
