

Ann Bobo Holbrook

June 21, 1933 - June 12, 2013

Funeral services for Ann B Holbrook, 79 of Lincoln, AL will be Saturday, June 15, 2013, 11:00 AM at the Frist Baptist Church Oxford Martin Chapel. The Rev. Jim McCain, Rev. Leon Champion and Dr. Rob Paul will be officiating. Burial will follow in the Oxford Memorial Gardens. The family will receive friends on Friday from 6 till 8 PM at Miller Funeral Home. Mrs. Holbrook passed away on Tuesday at Trinity Hospital. Survivors include her husband, Rev. Finley Holbrook Jr, son, Dr. Mark Holbrook (Alicia), granddaughter, Lauren Ann Holbrook, a host of nieces and nephews. Pallbearers will be Tommy Reaves, Bob Bobo, Mike Bobo, Lance Hunter, Glenn Hunter, Adam Reaves, Brandon Reaves, and Greg Mullins. Alternate Pallbearers will be great nephews and nephews in law. Horary Pallbearers will be members of her Sunday School Class The Gleaners at Lincoln Baptist Church. Mrs. Holbrook received her BS Degree Howard College (now Samford University). Mrs. Holbrook was a Physical Education teacher at Wellborn High School from 1963 till 1967, Guidance Councilor 1967 -1970's, Vocational Councilor from 1970' till 1993, serving Wellborn, Alexandria and Ohatchee Schools. Her initial church membership was at Frist Baptist Church Oxford where she served as church secretary and youth director. She served as Pastor's wife at West Anniston Baptist Church for 32 ½ years, and was currently a member of Lincoln Baptist Church. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Mary Emma Parker, Margaret Reaves, five brothers, Billy Bobo, John Harold Bobo, James Bobo, Gerald Bobo, and Paul Bobo. In Lieu of flowers the family request donations to Gideon's International or your local church of choice.