A graveside service will follow at Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens. Alan Brown and Dr. Jack Gray will be officiating.

Jack was born into a farm family; he believed in hard work. After he married his wife, Virginia, they moved to Okeechobee, Florida where they built a successful business in trucking. When you got into a conversation with Jack he would have a good ole truck driving story to tell you. Jack was very talented at fixing motors and machinery. His neighbors and some of his family would bring him their lawn mowers for him to work on. He enjoyed it but he also enjoyed socializing more than anything, sometimes having several neighbors at once all sitting around in his workshop talking and having a good ole time. In 2016, Jack was diagnosed with Alzheimer's and spent the remainder of his life at Autumn Cove Assisted Living in Anniston and then NHC Nursing Home.

The family would like to send a special thank you to Kylie Long and Jessica Dial and the nursing staff of Azalea way and a very special thank you to Alyson McGinnis of Encompass Health, it takes special people to do what you folks do and we appreciate you all very much.
