“ In loving memory of Barbara, in our youth Barbara and I lived and loved a life time, in the years we were together. She was my first love, my best friend and the mother of our son and daughter. She was a strong women and a very kind and caring person especially with family. Barbara was the kind of person that would rush into a crisis to help a family member without thinking of her self or how difficult or inconvenient it would be for her. Barbara was a beautiful loving soul and she will be forever missed by all those who love her.
