“ Mrs. Bea, as I called her, was my distant cousin on my mother side. Her mother and my grandmother were sisters. I connected with her when my wife and I started attending Antioch. Whenever, she saw me, she would always say, "Hi Cous." She always enjoyed talking about family. She would tell me lots of thing from the old days in Blue Mountain. I know she will be greatly missed by you, her family. She was a very precious lady. May God's peace and comfort be with you now and in the days ahead. Horace A. Carson.

P.S. My mother was Irene Balenger Carson and her mother was Leona McCray Balenger.
