“ Today I feel such a void in my life. You were so beautiful and loving and I was the lucky one to have you as a grandmother and one of my best friends. I miss you calling me and your picture popping up. You were actually the only person in my phone with a picture in my contacts. I miss you laughing at Aiden as he ran around your house. I just miss so much. I found myself at the store today and I was replaying your grocery lists in my head and I could almost see your handwriting. I just hope you knew how much I love you and appreciated you. I love you grandmother.

“ Bobbie and Kenneth were dear friends that Joyce and I became closely acquainted with in the early 70s while "Buck" was an active member in the Air Force Reserve at Charleston, SC. Ours hearts are saddened to learn of Bobbie's passing on to glory, yet rejoice that she is now accepted by the angels of heaven and into the arms of Jesus.

We so wanted to be with the family on Sunday, but out of state relatives were with us for this past weekend. Our prayers are directed to all the families for peace and comfort as time passes with fondest of memories about your loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.
