“ My memories of my Aunt Brenda are laughter and fun. She was very entertaining with her quick wit. We had a lot of good times together. One of my memorable moments is when she came to help me dig up very mature box woods. We were about to drop when she said she smelled sweet and sour chicken. I thought she had lost it but then realized that was her humorous way of saying she thought we had surely dug to China. If we had a sniffle she would bring us food. Enough for an army. She maintained an immaculate home and was always meticulous in her appearance. Her love for her family was demonstrated by her willingness to lend a hand in time of need. She will be greatly missed. I never dreamed she would depart from her earthly home so soon. Our loss is Heaven’s gain.
