“ A special celebration of life for our loving Aunt Brooksie- Blessed going to church with her many times, teaching me things & showing me how to be a Christian by her actions even when she was down and wanted so badly to come back home- She handled her much different life that was out of her control in last couple years with grace and pose and forgiveness - Her preacher said her family missed her so much and it was soo very true- Her church family meant alot to her and they loved her as well! She is home now in the loving arms of Jesus. I thank God for her and all that Aunt Brooksie meant to my family- She has been and will be missed by all!

“ My mother & Brooksie were fairly close in age. They shared a lot of the same experiences in life. Brooksie spent several holidays with us, either at my house or at my mom's house. I know she will be sorely missed, particularly by Rick, Frances, and Phyllis. My sympathy to all three.....Debby Garrett
