“ I remember him being such a good roller skater. Not speed but dance. He was amazing at it and taught me a lot of skate moves that I never forgot! God speed Jr. The older he got, the more he looked like Dad. Especially in the eyes. I will miss you.

“ We moved to Munford and Artie & Christine Latham introduced me to him. He was always fun, and protective. I had not seen him since 1976. But he was very nice!

“ My big brother, for six months, while the adoption proceedings worked through the six-month waiting period, only to have his Mom back out of allowing the adoption two weeks before it was final, because she discovered the doctors were wrong, she was not terminally ill, just had glaucoma. I remember when we wrecked Uncle Earl's truck while Junior was teaching me how to drive and change gears. We might not have hit the tree if he had known in advance which pedal was the brake. He was six and I was three at the time. He got a spanking for wrecking the truck, I got comfort because I bumped my head.
