

Mrs. Carol Sims Braden

June 22, 1939 - December 20, 2018

A memorial service for Mrs. Carol Sims Braden, 79, of Oxford, will be on Sunday, December 23, 2018 at 2:00 pm in the chapel of Miller Funeral Home.

Mrs. Braden passed away on December 20, 2018 at Stringfellow RMC.

She leaves behind to cherish her memory a daughter, Jeri Beam; granddaughters, Jodi Beam (Tyler) and Codi Beam (Blake); great grandchildren, Karleigh, Khloe and Grayson; brother, Wayne Sims (Carolyn); sister, Elaine Hammonds (Robert), and a host of extended family members and friends.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Richard 'Boss Hog' Braden and her parents, Harvell and Gladys Sims.

Mrs. Braden was a lady who gave back to her community as much as possible. She was over Super Saturday at Talladega Race Track where she would raise money to bring the children from the Boys and Girls Ranch to the race.

She was a loving and caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend and will be deeply missed by all who had the great pleasure of knowing her.

In lieu of flowers, please send donations to your favorite charity.

“ Very sorry to hear of your loss. The pain of losing a loved one never completely leaves but I pray you find comfort in the one desiring to comfort us (Isaiah 66:13). May God, the father of tender mercies prove to be near during this difficult time. Agape.
