“ Carolyn and I were first cousins, but we were brought up like sisters. Our mothers were sisters and very close. The Livingstons were a wonderful family. Carolyn graduated from Oxford High School where she was a majorette in the band. She worked for many years at Jacksonville State University in the School of Nursing. She loved the holidays and the preparations for the holidays. She could do anything and do it well. I'm sure she is organizing everything in Heaven. She will be missed.

“ I posted photos of the Lovvorn reunions because Carolyn's friendly, generous and welcoming manner made a special time even better. Her caring ways made her a blessing to two families. I know she is having fun meeting more of those Lovvorn relatives in heaven and telling them about her special stepchildren. Glad to have had her as an aunt. Debra Lovvorn Belvin

“ Carolyn was such a great addition to our family when she married Uncle Boots. We will always remember all the great food she prepared and brought to the reunions and the great times being with her. Last December, due to my husband's illness preventing me from attending a family wedding, Carolyn became my date for the weekend and I had so much fun getting to know her better. She will be missed

I always enjoyed being around Carolyn. She and my Mother, Jerry Sparks who passed away in December 2016 had been friends for many years and knew each other when they were young. They did many things within the church together. Shared many Sunday School parties and WMU parties together. Always helping each other out. After I lost my Mother, Carolyn would keep in touch with me almost weekly for along time I guess until she felt I would be ok. I will always miss my Mother and I will always miss Carolyn but I know those two friends are praising the Lord together .
