“ He was my Pawpaw. Every summer we went to the catfish derby up the road from his house at the moose lodge. I remember waking up early in the morning and meeting him at his house to eat breakfast (usually eggs and his gravy biscuits) and then he would grab his old zebco rod and reels and go catch some catfish with hotdogs. He also always sent us home with jams and jelly and tomato juice every time we visited. From going to his house every Christmas to loading his truck every time the corn came in on dads farm every moment spent with this man was a blessing and memories I'll cherish forever. He was a great man and the best Pawpaw you could ask for he never missed a birthday. I loved him very much but I know in my heart he's in a better place now. One day I'll see you again and you can show me your fishing spots in heaven. Love you rest in peace

I loved Uncle Charles. Always so loving and kind. Always a beautiful smile on his face and would make you laugh all the time. I remember him coming down to see Mom and Dad and us girls were going shopping. He made us a huge breakfast. It was Awesome. But, when we got home from a long day shopping, he left me a gift...all my dishes were dirty...but, he told us..I will cook but not clean up 🤷...he meant it. He just laughed at us... Those are memories I will cherish. I just loved how he would aggravate Mom (his sister) and then laugh and laugh and then give her the biggest kiss and hug. He gave great Bear hugs. I will truly miss this great man. All my love to you and the family ❤️

“ I loved my Dad so very much and was proud to be his son. He was a blessing to all those who knew him and he will be missed. He loved music and I remember him singing and playing his guitar when I was young. I tried to strum the strings and keep the rythm with his song hoping one day I may be able to play too. Thanks for the inspiration and your guidance. You will always be a part of the man I have become. Love you Dad !

Charlie would strum that guitar and make up songs all day long! They were all off the wall and goofy 🤪

“ I think I was 12 and driving the “old truck”. Well, the accelerator stuck and before I knew it, I was sitting on the top of a chain link fence in the truck! Charlie jumped in the truck and moved me out of the way while taking the blame 🤔 He had to be embarrassed in front of all of the neighbors, but he did not skip a beat. You know I just did not hit the brakes, but my story didn’t change. I love and will miss you, Charlie! Cheers to a life well lived 🍷❤️
