Michael Denney was a one of a kind individual. He was a loving and devoted husband, father, pawpaw and friend. He dedicated over eighteen years to the Anniston Army Depot. While that was his career by trade, Micheal was a jack of all trades and a master of many. He could frame a house, lay tile, build a deck or mow the lawn. You name it and he could do it. Michael loved Alabama football, dirt track racing and his little dog Reba, but he was most passionate about being a pawpaw to his grandbabies and a father to his son Christopher. Michael will be most remembered for his love and compassion for others. He was a big hearted guy who was always doing more for others than he did for himself. Whether you needed him or not he was always there to lend a hand. Micheal could always be counted on and never quit until the job was done.

While his job is done here on earth, he's sure to be building mansions in Heaven.

“ My friend, my brother. I'm already missing the phone calls just to check in and see how I'm doing. You were definitely one of the good people here on earth. Always, willing to go the extra mile to help someone or just to listen. Roll Tide Mike, I love you brother.
