“ Margo, Randal, Shaygren, Shawn's children, grandchildren and all others who loved and cared for him. I am so sorry he has left yall too soon. I know each of you are brokenhearted. Parents should not have to buried their own children. Even when we know their life is coming to an end; we are never ready to let them go. My heart hurts for you all. God has promised us an eternal home with him in heaven. You will see Shawn again. You are all in my prayers and my heart. With much love and empathy, Lori

When i first met Shawn he was 4. So i have a lot of memories of him. He loved my baked beans. He would call me the day before a family gathering to ask me to bring the baked beans with bacon strips on top. Everytime i bake beans, I think of Shawn.
