“ I loved my cousin Charles forever. I wrote him in Vietnam always; when he returned to the US on furlow, he brought me a gorgeous black shellaced painted jewelry music box. I cherished him and the box then as I do and always will . I was then a little girl and all the boys’ only girl cousin and youngest of the tribe. I have missed Charlie all of my life and am sad no one called me to tell me of his passing. St Louis Cousin Nancy Macek Uncle Bob ‘s daughter
