“ What a joy it has been to have known Charles over the years. I enjoyed taking him to Cracker Barrel, Ruby Tuesday and Chine Wok. He loved going to Top of the River with his family. He would always talk about his love for family and his love for his church. I know that he now has his reward in Heaven.

“ My love and prayers are extended toward each member of the family. May God wrap His loving arms of peace and confort around each of you. Just know that Charles is resting in the arms of Jesus today. What a joy it was to have Charles as my brother. It is a greater joy to know that he is with his Lord and Saviour. Wish I could be with you at the time but not able to due to surgery.
With heartfelt sympathy and love. Your brother Wayne Nabors

“ Patricia, Lindy, Dianell and families, my prayers and condolences go out to you. Uncle Charles was such a wonderful person. One of my favorite memories is the big meals we would have at Bettie, Granny and Pawpaw's house and how much he enjoyed them. Cherish all the memories.
