“ Whenever I was with Chris he was talking about Blakely and Tucker and how much he loved his family. He showed me pictures of them and his tattoos; he wanted to do right. He was always making jokes, he wanted people to be happy. He wanted people to know they were loved and appreciated. He spoke the truth and was always helping someone. He kept it real! I will never forget the kindness he showed toward me and others. He was certainly one of a kind, and will be missed. I only knew Chris for a short time but the impact he made is lasting.

“ Just wanted everyone to know what an honor it has been to have Chris Harrell as a brother for 41 years. He has been a blessing to our family. Brutally honest, master story teller, king of sarcasm, quick comebacks but mostly a big teddy bear with a heart of gold. I never remember having conversations with him that did not end with I love you. He had very little to his name but would give you anything he had. He was loving, caring, compassionate and fought tirelessly to overcome his addiction. His battle is over and our hearts are broken but at the same time filled with gratitude for the love we shared as a family.
