

Christopher Mark Hanson

May 5, 1975 - October 7, 2024

Christopher Mark Hanson, 49, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, October 7, 2024. A visitation will be held on Saturday, October 12, 2024, from 11:00 am until 1:00 pm with funeral services starting at 1:00 pm at Miller Funeral Home. Following his aquamation, he will remain with his loving wife until their ashes can be joined together forever. Rodney Gilmore will be officiating.

Mark is survived by his wife of 30 years, Beth Hanson; son, Matthew Hanson; grandchildren, Mackynzie, Hunter, Carson, Carter and Lilly Hanson; father, Chris Hanson; mother, Susan Hanson; siblings, Robin Leece (Jim), William Hanson, Romelda Carden (Tony), Bobby Wood (Michelle), Dana Morris (Tarence), Donnie Wood, Gary Wood, and numerous nieces and nephews. He loved his family deeply and he will be missed by everyone that ever knew and loved him.

Mark was a very talented guitar player who played with several local bands for many years throughout the area. He was an avid motorcycle rider, and he loved riding his Honda Valkyrie. He lived for the peace and freedom riding brought him. He rode every chance he could.

Mark survived many health battles over the past five years to sadly be lost so suddenly after his recent surgery.

Mark was an amazing person with such a warm and genuine soul who tried to uplift and encourage everyone he knew. He was a smart, loving and kind person who will forever be missed and loved.

Honorary pallbearers will be Darryl Espeleta, Matthew Gravitt, Wayne Smith, Brad Burke, David Sayers, Tim Robinson, and Brandon McCraw.
