“ I grew up always near nana, either behind her house or across the street or even in her house for a while, she always loved mountain dew and facebook bingo, she used to stay up all night with bingo, i have so many memories with her that I can't even sum up in one little post.

“ Nana was the best! I spent most of my childhood at her house. From watching those soaps with her, playing restaurants, having nearly all my birthday parties there. I basically lived there and she helped raise me. I used to walk from my dads house on Jennifer rd, all the way to nanas house just to spend the day watching tv with her or to just come see her. Recently I would come see her on my lunch breaks when I worked at Munford and just watch western shows with her. I'm definitely going to miss her. And I love her dearly!

“ Nana Connie was the best anyone could ever ask for. Even though I was not married to her son anymore she still loves me like one of her own. She might not have been blood but she was my mom in every way. I will miss from now on..
