“ *My beloved speaks and says to me:
"Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away;
for lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone.
Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.
O my dove, in the clefts of the rock, in the covert of the cliff, let me see your face, let me hear your voice, for your voice is sweet, and your face is comely.
My dove, my perfect one, is only one, the darling of her mother,
flawless to her that bore her.
The maidens saw her and called her happy; the queens and concubines also, and they praised her.
"Who is this that looks forth like the dawn, fair as the moon, bright as the sun, terrible as an army with banners?"
Before I knew it, my heart had made me the blessed one of my kinswomen.
Song of Songs 2:10-11, 13-14, 6:9-10; 12*
