Cy Wagner was quite the character. Most of all he loved God, his family, and his friends. He was instrumental in the founding of Brookside Baptist Church. He loved his church and church family. Not only was Cy a character, he was an amazing husband and father. He often could be found with his 3 red heads. Since the early 70s, Cy has put his heart and soul in the Sigma Nu Fraternity at JSU to help mold the minds of young men. He was passionate about his work, his country, and especially Alabama football.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the youth and children's ministry at Brookside Baptist Church.

“ Cy was a precious high school buddy from Anniston High School...it was great to reunite with him as older adults while we served the Lord within our church family. A character he was, but of the very best kind ! He brought joy along with him and always had time to talk and spin a tale ... I can't remember anyone more fun loving or kind and I will miss seeing him greatly. My sincere prayers are with you girls during this devastating time. We will see Cy again, and I'm certain he's planned us a blast ! Much Love Cy
