“ This was not just an ordinary man, this was an extraordinary man! There isn't very many fun memories from my childhood that he wasn't a part of. He was my favorite Uncle and I was his little RED.... This man taught me to drive when I was let's just say very young and April and I probably drove him crazy wanting to drive. He will be missed very much, but never forgotten. I mean to know him was to love him! I love you Uncle Danny and will see you again!
