During Darlene's formative years, she acted as protector and provider for her two younger sisters. She cooked for them and cared for them while her mom worked day and night to keep the family unit together.

As an adult, Darlene continued to put the needs of others first. She always made sure that she did whatever she could to make the world a better place for her friends and loved ones. She lived the commandment, "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

She was a Gadsden High School "Class of 1977" graduate. She then attended Jacksonville State University where she majored in Art and Psychology. As a student at JSU she assisted teachers and students in the Learning Lab. After graduation, she worked as an advertising sales representative at the Jacksonville News. Then she became a sales representative for Nextel. After retiring from her sales career, she fell in love with her current work as a case manager working with adults with special needs.

Darlene especially loved the work she did with Habitat for Humanity and Second Chance shelter. She was also on the board of directors for 2nd Chance. She loved to work in the Community Garden and cook for her family.

Darlene will be greatly missed!

“ I will always treasure the time we had together. We were blessed with almost 60 years of pure joy as sisters. I can see you dancing on the streets of gold in your lovely glorified body. It is so wonderful to know that you are with Jesus and we will get to pick up where we left off as soon as I get to Heaven.
