“ y Day & I met when I was 14 or 15, we walked all over Saks together til we started driving. We went to school, church and played softball for many years together. After I got t of the Army & moved back here, we were able to reconnect through FB. We last saw each other in March, we rode together (like in the old days ) to a Glenn Adie Baptist reunion. We were able to spend couple hours catching up & just hanging out. I'll hold that day in a special place in my heart & memory
