Tribute Wall

“ The pain of loosing you never goes away, not even for a second. My heart hurts every day for you. I know that I will see you again one day and that day is too far away. You will forever be in my heart. I am trying with everything I am to move on and be happy in life the way you always wanted me to be. It isn't easy at all but I am managing somehow. Thank you for loving me the way that you did. Knowing you and loving you changed my life forever.

*I still love you more then I love myself. Always will..
For-ever your Queen!!
Your Tricia Leigh*

“ David was the love of my life! I will love him for the rest of my life and beyond. He was a good man and he was good to me. He made mistakes like we all do but that did not change the fact the he loved fiercely!!!!

David, you were like a brother to me since the day we met. You always gave me really good advice and guided me in the direction. I love you David Salster. You maybe gone, but you will never ever be forgotten. R.I.P.

I still can't believe that you are gone from this life. It has been 50 days since I lost you. There are no words to describe the pain that I feel EVERY SINGLE MINUTE OF EVERY SINGLE DAY!!! I will love you and miss you forever! I know that you are no longer tired and hurting like you were. There are so many things that I wish I could ask and get the answers to, but I know that isn't going to happen. What I really want, no one can give me, which is you to still be here with me living the life that we planned. I know that you are up there with our Heavenly Father and everyone special to you and I that went before you. I know you are watching over me and will continue to do that until we meet again. Thank you for loving me the way you did. I am a better person because of the love that we shared.

Until we meet again my love, all my love, Your Queen... Tricia Leigh
