

Donald Max Yarbrough

January 16, 2021

Donald Max Yarbrough, 79, passed away on January 16, 2021, of an unexpected acute illness.

Max grew up in Anniston, lived his entire adult life in Eastaboga and was the sole proprietor of Max Yarbrough Construction Company, building swimming pools and general contracting for over 40 years.

Max is survived by Donna Callan (Jason Callan), of Anniston, and Don Yarbrough (Lisa Yarbrough), of Corvallis, Oregon, the beloved children of Max and Betty Yarbrough, as well as his brother Clyde Yarbrough, of Huntsville, and Linda Kay Hinkle, his loving companion. Max adored his 6 grandchildren, Adam, Holly, Kallie, Emma, Hunter and Aaron, and was blessed with a loving family and many friendships.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Gold and Pearl Yarbrough, and his brother Tommy Yarbrough, the "Snakeman".

There will be a graveside service 11 am, Saturday January 23rd, at Forest Lawn Memorial Gardens to honor his life and memory.

Max was a lover of the local arts, therefore in lieu of flowers please consider a donation to the Oxford Performing Arts Center (PO Box 3383, Oxford, AL, 36203). Alternatively, consider a donation to the Auburn University Alumni Foundation (317 S. College St, Auburn Univ, Auburn, AL 36849) or your favorite charity.
