Tribute Wall

“ Loved Donna. She and I worked together for three years in the Chemical School, and stayed friends until her passing. She loved her children and always included them in conversations and her daily life. Rest in Peace Donna. You truly earned your wings and will be missed here on earth.

slipped away into the next room. Nothing has happened. Everything remains exactly as it was. I am I, and you are you, and the old life that we lived so fondly together is unaltered, unchanged. Whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by the old familiar name. Speak of me in the easy way which you always used. Put an affection into your tone. When an forest air of solemnity or sadness. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes that we enjoyed together. Play, walk, think of me, pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow upon it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was. There is absolute and unshakable continuity. What is this death but a negligible accident? Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere were seen. Just round the corner. All is well.
