Our mother was a kind and loving mom. She loved to work in her flower garden always keeping it well-manicured. Even as her health declined she was always concerned about her flowers. She always made sure we were well fed and cared for. She was an amazing cook and served the best southern comfort food with recipes handed down from generations of friends and family. "Mother" was a wonderful Christian, wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She will be greatly missed!

In lieu of flowers the family would like to ask that donations be made to First Baptist Church of Oxford, Home Bound Ministry, 95 E Oak Street, Oxford Al 36203.
