“ Larry, Brenda and Beatrice, I am sorry to read of the loss of your mother and sister. Losing a loved one is never easy to deal with. Our Heavenly Father provides comfort for us in His word. At 1 Peter 5:7, we are assured that He loves us and provides comfort. May you all experience His loving care.

“ Please accept my sincerest condolences on your loss. There is no doubt that this is a difficult time for you. This life we live seems so short. When we truly begin to live, it seems that life is snatched away from us. I want to offer you a scripture that hopefully give you comfort during this difficult time. It can be found at Rev 21:4 and it reads "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.”

God sees our pain, and he wants to wipe it away. In the future he will do away with death and mourning. Pain will be gone from us and you will have the opportunity to see Dorothy again. Thank you for the opportunity to share these words with you, and I hope it gives you some comfort during this time of mourning. Please keep these words close to your heart look forward to what God has in store for us.
