“ God bless your family in your time of the passing of Drew. He was one of the best guitar students in the home school coop guitar class that I taught. Drew always smiled and loved to show the beginning guitar students some cool ways to play popular songs that he knew. The entire class was inspired by his natural talent, and I think his way of sharing his love of music influenced the aspiring guitarists to continue to pursue their desire to be able to play like Drew. Drew's warm and fun personality was missed when he didn't make it to class sometimes. I feel privileged to have known Drew and I know he is enjoying the music of the angels in heaven, probably showing them his favorite songs, too! God bless you and keep you Drew, you were a blessing to us all ! Very sincerely yours, in Christ ,Jesus, Marlene Wolfe
