“ Wanda there are no words that we can say that will let you know what we feel in our heart, no words to take away the pain of losing your precious soul mate, Drew was such a good man, a humble man, he fought hard to stay here with you and Amber, he loved you both dearly but when God saw he was getting tired and just couldn't fight any longer His plan to bring Drew home became a reality. Drew isn't suffering anymore, he is healed and rejoicing with his family and friends that have passed before him. God is good! Our prayers for the entire family will continue.

“ Loving this man as if he were my blood brother. He was my brother in Christ. Words can never express how much this man was loved by all who knew him. He was the most humble person I have ever known. He will be missed, but he does not hurt anymore. For that, I am thankful. Please keep Wanda, Amber, Billy and the rest of the family who loved him so much. He was a fine Christian man.

“ There are not words i cannot express how I feel about Drew.. He worked hard, loved his family but more importantly he loved the Lord and the church. As his dad always said he came from "Good stock". Love you Wanda, Amber, his precious mom, his sister's and brother. I appreciate him for all the great things he has inspired me and others to be. A great reunion with his Dad, uncle, and his grandparents. Praying for his family and may God richly bless you!

“ Special memories of Drew are of this precious little boy in 3rd or 4th grade Bible class on Wed. nights. Young boys playing football in our back yard on Sunday afternoons. Teenagers playing the highly anticipated grudge match between the Jones & Pettus in the field beside our house & the all important basketball game (so important they even finished it during a thunderstorm) at the Pettus house. A handsome young man, a dedicated Christian with a beautiful family, walking hand in hand toward heaven together.

Imprints on our hearts that will last always!
