He was a native of White Oak, Alabama, and a graduate of Albertville High School. After completing basic training in the Army, he began his career at the Anniston Army Depot where he rose through the ranks to serve as Branch Chief, Vehicle and Artillery while continuing to serve his country in the Army Reserves for six years. Ed loved baseball and served local baseball leagues in many capacities in the Bynum, Anniston, Saks, and Oxford communities. He especially enjoyed coaching his sons and led them to numerous league, all-star and state championships through the years. He was also a top-notch handyman who had the ability to build and repair most anything and was willing to help family, friends, and anyone in need throughout the community.

He was a devout Christian who loved the Lord and his church family. His disciple's heart was demonstrated by the many servant roles he performed throughout the years. He was respected and loved by all who knew him and will truly be missed.
