“ Mrs. Bentley taught my son. He had a hard time in school. He was chubby and all the kids made fun of him . Ms. Bentley put him in the Christmas play as Santa. Billy could sing and she was musical. She did more for my son than any other teacher. He C went on to be I. The band at Wellborn and in Arab, AL. He was still playing the tuba when he passed from a heart attack at age 44 I. 2015. Thank you Ms. Bentley. You were the best. Brenda Reed mother of Billy Reed.

I had the pleasure to get to know this precious lady during the years she was having to do dialysis. To say that she had a good attitude facing trying times is a gross understatement. We shared stories and laughter during her dialysis sessions. She showed strength, patience, and grace all through her illness. An incredible example of a Godly woman to me and others. I love you Mrs. Bentley!
