“ I don't believe that Eva quite knew what to think of me the first time Donna brought me home to meet her Mother! However, we came to develop a mutually strong and loving relationship, as we had the love of my life Donna in common. I always admired Eva for her determination, her personal strength, caring attitude and her unconditional love of family; all characteristics which she passed along to my precious Donna. Eva will be missed by all of us who were fortunate enough to be blessed to know her. Once again, Eva is with her adoring Donna, in the company of our Lord.

To Dave Reeder,

Hope you get this note. Jean & I will be coming to Oxford, AL around the 22 to attend the funeral of Karen, daughter of my sister Barbara Lloyd who passed away a few months ago. The farewell will be at Oxford Lake as we say farewell to her.

Pray for family members as we say good bye. I know you still miss Donna as we all do. Jean & I were very close to her, and she was precious to me as well.

God Bless
