“ There are so many hilarious memories I have of Frances, most of them at the expense of others so I'll keep those laughs close to my heart and treasure them until a time when she and I can have our laughs together again.

She was tough as nails with a kind and gentle heart of a saint.

People said if she doesn't like you then you will know it; I thank God I never knew that side, I was blessed to see only the best. God speed sweet woman, you are restored and resting in the arms of Jesus. I'll love you forever.
