

Ganes Troy Worthy

October 16, 1927 - June 27, 2011

Ganes Troy Worthy, known to so many as "Bud" Worthy, was born October 16, 1927, in Anniston, Alabama. He died in Lincoln, Alabama, June 27, 2011. He is survived by his wife, Nina Worthy, one sister, Rebecca Haynes, one son, Gary Worthy, and his wife, Teresa Worthy, six grandchildren, Jonathan and Shana Spencer, Scott and Jessica Worthy, and Joseph and Sabrina Stewart, one great grandchild, Kaylee Grace Worthy, and many nieces and nephews. He attended school at Anniston High School and began a long career of 45 years at Anniston Foundry where he worked as plant manager and later at Union Foundry where he served as superintendent over several departments until his retirement. In 1967, he received a certificate from Dale Carnegie on human relations and effective speaking. He was also awarded several certificates in draftsmanship. He was one of Jehovah's Witnesses attending the kingdom hall in Cropwell, Alabama. He volunteered with the Regional Building Committee, helping with remodeling and building kingdom halls in Alabama and Georgia.

Memorial services will be June 30, 2011, 11:00 a.m. at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Cropwell, Alabama. The memorial talk will be given by Rudy Moore. Refreshments and lunch will be provided immediately following at the Pell City Civic Center.